

MEDIA ADVISORY
FRIDAY, NOV. 4 at 6 PM

Nationally renowned wildlife artist to join biologists for traveling exhibit premiere at Studio 7 Fine Art Gallery in Bernardsville

Bernardsville, NJ - The nonprofit Conserve Wildlife Foundation will bring Rare Wildlife Revealed: The James Fiorentino Traveling Art Exhibition to Studio 7 Fine Art Gallery for a reception this Friday, November 4th from 6 to 9 pm. Nationally celebrated artist Mr. Fiorentino will be joined by CWF field biologists Stephanie Feigin and Kelly Triece, as well as a live screech owl at this free reception.

Mr. Fiorentino, an award-winning sports and wildlife artist, has painted 25 stunning watercolor images of at-risk wildlife species from New Jersey, from the bobcat and bald eagle to the Pine Barrens tree frog and little brown bat.

Door prize of a Maternity Bat house will be awarded to one lucky attendee.

The exhibition will travel around New Jersey and the Northeast over the next three years. Digital photos are available; the event will also offer great photo opportunities.

What: Second showing of Conserve Wildlife Foundation's "Rare Wildlife Revealed" with celebrated artist James Fiorentino and CWF biologists

When: Friday, November 4 from 6 -9 PM

Where: Studio 7 Fine Art Gallery, 5 Morristown Road, Bernardsville, NJ 07924

Contact: David Wheeler, CWF Executive Director, 732-910-2063

For More Information: <http://www.conservewildlifenj.org>